Plantation Trace is a new community in Livingston less than two miles from the French Settlement Schools located just off of Hwy 444. There are limited lots to pick from and all of them are at least .689 of an acre. Many of the lots have large trees which the developer was able to save when planning the neighborhood. Numerous floorplans are available or bring your own plan. Prices start in the $160's. All homes will be eco friendly and energy efficient with OSB roofing and low E windows.
