Assert your Independence with your very own slice of verdant green haven perched at the edge of a small pond in Belmont subdivision. Here you'll find the freedom to craft a home that embodies your ideals on a .44 acre lot where you can leave your troubles at the water's edge each evening and awake each morning to find them smoothed away by soft nightly breezes. Maybe you'll grow a garden here or build a garage outback for wood working. Maybe a pool Maybe a huge outdoor kitchen is in your future, but one thing is for certain the plans are yours for the making. In addition to Independence...this unique property also comes centrally located in the heart of Houma, close to MLK and all the shopping and dining it offers. It's the perfect combination of convenience and opportunity. So, declare today your Independence Day and schedule a showing before someone corners the market on this amazing property.
