Grand Isle history has much to do this with the J. Augustin General Merchandise Store. It was formerly "Ludwigs" but now in the Augustin family for the last 75 years. I am sure it has many stories to tell. The store was built first then the home added on as a boarding house. The enclosure between the 2 became the storage room for the store. There are six bedrooms, 2 on the first floor and 4 on the second floor. The first floor has 2 bedrooms, 1 full bath, office, living and kitchen. Second floor also houses an office and a storage room. It became the family home and remained so until 1989. Call for appointment.
