Touched by Tradition! This sale includes an additional lot behind the home. Large foyer entry leads to an inviting sunken den and study. Sunny dining area with large windows overlooking the front gardens. Feast in this area that works for two or ten. Centrally located family room creates cheer with its large fireplace and rear access to your own personal partially wooded 1.2 acres. This family room whispers "relax" from the bottom of the wood floors to the top of its custom wood ceilings and bookcases. Solarium with trussed exposed supports makes a one of a kind home study. Four large bedrooms, three baths, and spacious utility room with deep sink and freezer space. This is your perfect home for your family and treasured memories. On the acreage there is a creek that runs through the rear of the second lot and along side the front drive area. This may be the ONE!!!!
