Are you looking for country living that is only minutes from the city? This house has four bedrooms with a bonus room. There are beautiful stained concrete floors throughout the entire first floor. It offers an open floor plan with an island that separates your living room from the kitchen. There are granite countertops throughout the entire house. There is a spacious breakfast area right off the kitchen with lots of windows for natural light. There are multiple vaulted ceilings for the open appeal. Then head upstairs to your bonus room accompanied by a full bath, just across the hall. This beautiful home is only four years old and is priced right to sell fast. Call for your showing today!
