2 Bedrooms | 2 Bathrooms | 2,082 Sqft

Absolutely beautiful cottage located in the heart of the town of Slaughter. This 2 bedroom 2-1/2 bath Victorian cottage was built in 1890 and has great professional landscaping with mature trees, shrubs, and ground cover. The House faces Church St and the yard is defined and completely enclosed by a white picket fence. The driveway is at the rear property and provides plenty of off street parking for 4 or more cars. Inside the living room has ceramic tiles with brick steps that take you into the kitchen where there are the original pine floors - a great island with a lot of storage, granite counters, custom cabinets, butlers pantry and sink. There is crown molding throughout the house and the ceilings are 12-14' - there are also 3 original fireplaces and the main suite features a nice jetted tub. The current owners have kept meticulous care of this home with very tasteful paint colors - schedule your private showing today!
