Lovely French Normandy estate on historic Highland Rd. sits under 200 year old Live Oaks. The beautiful sloping backyard with large patio sits on a bluff overlooking Bayou Fountain, with ample room & gorgeous views for outdoor entertaining. The home's interiors boast antique materials of the highest quality from Europe, with a formal floor plan with a Louis XV marble fireplace mantel, Venetian plaster walls, ceiling medallions, European stone floors, & French chandeliers. This lovely home was built in 1939 for the daughter of then LSU President James Monroe Smith, and is full of history & charm. Large kitchen offers granite countertops, stainless steel Kitchen Aid appliances, a gas stove & ample counter & cabinet space.
