Wildlife & Beauty!! If beautiful hardwood bottoms and towering pine ridges in a secluded area is what you have been searching for, look no further. This will make a beautiful home place or weekend retreat. When you drive in on the private road and close the gate you know immediately you are on an oasis. The property is located less than an hour from Baton Rouge and the evidence of deer sign is incredible. Habitat is everything when looking for that perfect hunting property. This one has all you will need from mature hardwood, open fields, cover, and water. Comite Creek is the entire eastern border. The property is surrounded by large landowners. This is a must see. Call for your showing today.
