Nestled along a serene waterfront of Belle River, this expansive 14.27-acre property is a breathtaking sanctuary of natural beauty. The landscape is adorned with majestic, centuries-old oak trees, their sprawling branches draped in delicate Spanish moss that sways gently in the breeze, casting dappled shade across the grounds with the terrain framed by the shimmering water's edge. Gentle slopes lead to pristine shoreline, offering panoramic views of tranquil waters that reflect the golden hues of sunrise and sunset. The property is alive with the sounds of nature—birds chirping, waves lapping, and leaves rustling—creating an idyllic retreat. Perfect for a private estate or a nature-inspired development, this land combines timeless elegance with the raw splendor of its surroundings, inviting endless possibilities for those seeking a connection to the outdoors.
