Welcome to this meticulously maintained and beautifully designed home located in the well-established Patriot Point subdivision on the east side of Houma. Built in 2017, this charming property offers nearly 1,600 square feet of living space with a semi-open floor plan that flows effortlessly and is filled with tasteful details throughout. The living area features tall ceilings, crown molding, recessed lighting, ceiling fans, and ceramic tile flooring, all complemented by a neutral color palette that adds warmth and style. The kitchen is both functional and beautiful, boasting granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, an undermount sink, and plenty of cabinet space with additional shelving. A cozy dining nook is just off the kitchen, offering a great space for casual meals. All three bedrooms include generous closet space, and the windows throughout the home are dressed with blinds for privacy and light control. The primary suite offers a peaceful retreat with vaulted ceilings, recessed lighting, a large walk-in shower, and a spacious walk-in closet. The hall bathroom is conveniently located between the two additional bedrooms and features a tub/shower combo and ample room. Additional highlights include an interior laundry room, total electric utilities, a double-car garage, and extended concrete parking. The home sits on a level, built-up mound
