If you haven't heard of The Country Club of Louisiana, ask your realtor for a deep dive, but just know that the golfing is top tier, the security makes you feel like Darth Vader, and you have everything you could need inside the club gates. Enter this 4 bed 3.5 bath French Acadian home and you're welcomed by warm pine floors and a wide foyer that makes the house feel important. The living room has a massive window that's filled with light in the morning and catches the soft glow of the evening through another, framing views of your private courtyard. The kitchen feels like Louisiana, with brick floors, rich wood details, and Monogram/Café appliances. The island's retractable vent lets you sear your steak without singeing your eyebrows, or you can keep your hair perfect by using your Advantium induction/convection oven just look up recipes. The keeping room has its own fireplace that matches the brick floors, with a view out to the backyard. The formal dining room is connected to the kitchen by a butler's pantry and is flooded with natural light from a gorgeous rounded window. Outside, the brick continues, wrapping around a courtyard and pool that gives the backyard a European vibe. A garden arbor draped in mature vines welcomes you to the cabana overlooking the water, all within your private gated backyard and complemented by a three-car
