Welcome to this beautifully updated home nestled on a spacious double lot in the highly desirable The Oaks subdivision where history and culture meet modern living. Located on the corner of Whitehead Boulevard and Avenue B, this property offers the perfect blend of charm, space, and convenience, surrounded by tree-lined streets, walking paths, and sidewalks ideal for morning strolls or evening walks. Enter from the lovely covered front porch that is the perfect place to relax and take in views of the boulevard. Inside, you'll find an open floorplan featuring 3 bedrooms with large closet space and 2 full bathrooms. Recent updates include fresh interior paint, new flooring, and upgrades to electrical and plumbing systems, giving peace of mind and move-in ready comfort. The kitchen is equipped with a five-burner gas stove and opens to the living area, so the family chef is never far from the action or conversation. The double doors to the laundry area are custom-built and designed to reflect the character of the home. The backyard is great for entertaining and fully enclosed with a wooden privacy fence. There is also a storage building for your tools and lawn equipment. Walking distance from the WBRP Museum, community parks, and the biking or walking trails along the levee. Don't miss the opportunity to call this lovely property your "Home".
