Discover 39 beautiful acres in Wilkinson County, surrounded by large timber company land for added privacy and abundant wildlife. A flowing creek winds through the center of the property, creating the perfect natural setting for hunting, recreation, or a secluded homesite. The land features a mix of hardwood and pine, offering excellent timber potential and year-round beauty. With road frontage and utilities available, this is a rare opportunity to own a versatile tract in a desirable rural location. Don't miss your chance to enjoy peace, nature, and investment value all in one property.
