Suite 103 is a private office nestled within a bustling downtown corner suite, offered separately for $395 per month. Located in a high-traffic building that hosts multiple professional offices and commercial businesses, this discreet space provides privacy and a client-ready environment while benefiting from the building's visibility and convenient access. Access can be gained internally from Unit 101 or through the building's shared hallway and lobby, offering flexible options for clients and staff. The suite features its own HVAC system with a private thermostat to ensure comfort and efficiency, making it ideal for solo professionals such as stylists, spa consultants, boutique owners, or consultants who need a focused workspace that can operate independently or complement a larger suite. Availability is subject to current occupancy; please contact us to confirm status and schedule a tour.
