26 acres M/L of pure beauty located on the outskirts of St. Francisville, LA. Just minutes away from Tunica Hills WMA and 20 minutes or so from town. This 26 acre tract has breath taking views all the way around it. From the high ridges throughout the woods to the creek that runs through the property. The deer and turkeys feel right at home and so will you! As you enter the gate of this property, you are greeted by a beautiful live oak plantation along with a home that was built in the 1800 s and is no longer in use. As you make your way down the drive, you will then find what could be your home/camp site. There is a mobile home in place which will remain with the property. Whether you are looking for a place to live, camp, or hunt, this place can meet your desires. Call today for your private showing!
