This beautiful home on over .30 of an acre located in Baton Rouge LA is a luxury experience to behold. Pulling into the circular driveway you'll be pleasantly surprised by the custom landscaping and stately presence of this corner lot. Entering the foyer, flanked by the office and formal dining room, your eyes are drawn to the beautiful pool and outdoor living space. However, there's a lot of home to see before you get there. The open floor plan and calming colors will make you feel as if you've arrived in a vacation home. The well-lit living space has a wall of windows allowing light and an amazing view of your private back yard sanctuary. The open kitchen's exposed brick and gas fireplace will bring you back to years past while keeping you up to date with its modern appliances. Off of the main living area is a full bath with shower for guests to towel off after they've spent time in the gorgeous oasis of the backyard. The primary bedroom is located to the rear of the home and has several views overlooking the pool. There are French doors located just off the primary bedrooms for the owner's private pool entrance. The soaking tub, separate tiled shower and walk-in closets of the master beckon you to soak your troubles away. Upstairs is a guest's delight. The loft area is the perfect hangout area without bothering those downstairs. Through one of the
