Charming 2-bedroom, 1-bath home situated on a spacious double lot on West End Drive. This property offers plenty of room both inside and out, making it an excellent starter home or investment opportunity. Inside, you'll find real wood floors, a large living room, and a generously sized kitchen with space for cooking and gathering. The home has several updates, including a brand-new roof and updated windows, providing comfort and peace of mind. Outside, enjoy the convenience of a covered carport, a huge covered storage area, and an additional storage space for all your needs. With its combination of character, functionality, and lot size, this property is full of potential for the right buyer.
