Your dream can finally become a reality! Tucked away in Jefferson Terrace, this home provides the opportunity for a quiet lifestyle while having the benefit of being in the heart of Baton Rouge. Only a year old and all upgrades already complete, including but not limited to a whole home generator, gutters, extended patio, and attached additional storage, this home is better than new! Upon entering the home, you feel the grand scale of the vaulted ceilings, wood beams separating the living spaces, and the wall of windows that bring natural light and the ability to enjoy the picturesque views of the backyard. The kitchen is a masterpiece with high end appliances, quartzite counters, huge island, and a beautiful scullery with butcher block counters that lead into a walk-in pantry. The main bedroom has its own private patio, spa-like bathroom with oversized shower, and large walk-in closet with detailed built-ins and a window seat. The first floor has an additional bedroom with its own private full bath along with a half bath off the kitchen for guests. The second floor provides two additional bedrooms and a large shared bath. The exterior is complete with a large patio and full outdoor kitchen, with a yard that can easily house a pool, if desired. Come see for yourself why this one won't stay on the market for long!
