This house is different from the moment you drive up there's a WOW factor that you just feel. The outside is well maintained and very appealing to the eye. The beautiful RED doors draw you in and you won't be disappointed. You'll fall in love with the glamorous decor and the open floor plan. The formal dining room is currently being used as a formal living room and it's impressive with the white couches, glass tables and not to mention the gold accents tie everything together. Things get even better as you enter the family room with the lush couches and chairs it's such a peaceful setting that you'll never want to leave. The kitchen has beautiful white cabinets and a large breakfast bar. The countertops are BLACK OUBA TUBA slab granite & they are beautiful. The kitchen has an eat-in area that is big enough to handle an 8-person table. There is plenty of storage and there's a walk-in pantry to handle any overflow. The split floor plan makes it so nice because everyone has their own privacy. The master bedroom is very spacious and has a tray ceiling that just adds to that luxury feeling. The master bathroom has a large tub and separate shower. There's double vanities and the ladies side even has a space for her to glam up! There's even separate walk-in closet space no one has to share in this house. Outside you'll find a covered patio that you'll probably fall in love
