2 Bedrooms | 1 Bathroom | 1,360 Sqft

This historic home in Spanish Town built in 1909 features high ceilings, some original light fixtures, four original fireplaces with interesting tile-work, original wood floors, and three beautiful chandeliers. The roof and HVAC system are 4 years old. The large front porch opens into the foyer with a reception room on either side, living room and dining room, each with its own fireplace. There are two large bedrooms with their own fireplaces and a hall bathroom. The kitchen is located off the dining room, remodeled in the 1970s. There is a small utility room behind the kitchen. Additionally there is a large two car garage plus a green house in the back. The house is served by a common driveway, shared with the neighbors at 707 Bungalow Ln.
