This sweet cottage on Tulip St is the kind of place where mornings start slow and evenings end under the porch lights. 3-bedroom, 2-bath bungalow is full of that old Baton Rouge charm wide front porch that wraps around the corner, real wood floors that shine, tall ceilings, and tons of natural light. The kitchen is open and roomy with a big island that's perfect for everyday meals, coffee chats, or weekend get-togethers. Out back, there's a new wooden privacy fence and a concrete pad ready for your outdoor kitchen or grill setup ideal for backyard hangouts or crawfish boils. You'll also love the convenience of off-street parking. All appliances stay (including a gas range, washer, dryer, and refrigerator). Living here puts you close to some Baton Rouge favorites like Zeeland Street Market, Garden District Coffee, and BLDG 5. You're just minutes from LSU, downtown, and the lakes so you can enjoy everything this classic neighborhood has to offer. If you've been looking for that easy, laid-back Baton Rouge lifestyle with a touch of historic charm, this one's got it.
