Welcome to 4311 Locke Street, a one-of-a-kind home in the heart of Zachary, located on a 0.35-acre corner lot at Locke Street and McHugh Drive, within the highly sought-after Zachary Community School District. With 2,946 sq. ft. of living space, 4 bedrooms, 3 full bathrooms and a newer roof, that's approximately 3.5 years old, this charming property blends history, character, and functionality. Originally built in 1949, this home has been thoughtfully expanded and updated over time, including a primary suite addition in 1978. Step through the foyer into a warm and inviting living room featuring elegant bay windows, a decorative gas log fireplace, and plenty of space for comfortable seating. The kitchen offers custom-built cabinetry, tile flooring, a large window over the sink, a center island, and outdoor access to the rear deck, flowing into the dining area with beautiful hardwood floors. The study is filled with natural light from multiple windows and includes a windowed door leading to the rear covered deck. A few steps down, the family room welcomes you with a brick wood-burning fireplace, an entire wall of built-ins, the Utility closet and direct access to the carport perfect for gatherings or relaxing evenings at home. The spacious primary bedroom suite offers two closets, an en suite bathroom, a separate office with a ton of built-ins, and French doors
