4 Bedrooms | 2 Bathrooms | 2,535 Sqft

This charming vintage 1930s cottage, nestled in the heart of Port Allen, is a true gem steeped in local history and memories. It features original real wood floors and a stylish furniture-style bathroom vanity. All bedrooms are generously sized. The open living/dining area offers a cozy yet spacious feel with a real wood-burning fireplace. Additional amenities include built-in curio cabinets at the entrance, thick wood-trimmed archways, a brick-paved walkway, and square subway tile bathtub areas. To the rear of the property you have private courtyard and patio gardens. All of that just adds to its unique character. The front of the home is framed with two large live oak trees... it is breath taking. Please note some photos are enhanced.
