4 Bedrooms | 3 Bathrooms | 3,327 Sqft

Fully renovated custom home on 1.78 acres located on quiet dead-end street within the Central School System offers privacy and elegance. Entering the grand foyer, you are greeted by soaring 20-foot ceilings, a stunning light fixture and rich hardwood floors with exquisite natural grain. The living room centers around a cozy fireplace and overlooks the serene backyard featuring a pond with a lighted fountain and charming bridge. The formal dining room features elegant wall molding and a solid antique wooden beam. The chef's kitchen features floor-to-ceiling cabinetry, 3cm Mont Blanc quartzite countertops and backsplash, an oversized island, double wall ovens and a 36 gas cooktop. The pantry offers additional storage enhanced by reclaimed antique doors. Conveniently located off the kitchen, the half bath features an antique hand-carved European door, designer wallpaper and a quartzite vanity. Hardwood floors continue into the generously sized primary bedroom featuring an arched window overlooking the expansive front yard. Dual walk-in closets offer ample storage. The primary bath complements the suite with elegant finishes, separate vanities with quartz countertops, a tub and a custom walk-in shower. An additional 1st floor bedroom includes an en-suite bath featuring a porcelain slab accent wall complemented by coordinating tile
