Welcome to this inviting River Forest residence, where character greets you the moment you arrive. A circular driveway guides you toward a beautifully landscaped front courtyard, setting a warm first impression. Step inside through the striking stained-glass entry and into a welcoming foyer that opens to a centrally located living room. Here, a wood-burning fireplace creates a cozy focal point for gatherings. The bright kitchen offers plenty of natural light and is well-appointed with granite counters, stainless appliances, an island with seating, a breakfast nook, pantry, and a convenient built-in desk area. Just off the kitchen sits a combined laundry and half bath for added functionality. A generously sized formal dining room completes this wing of the home ideal for hosting friends and family. On the opposite side of the living space are two comfortable bedrooms, a full hall bath, and a private primary suite featuring a spacious walk-in shower and a large closet. The backyard provides ample space for play, gardening, or entertaining, and also includes a storage building for additional convenience. Set in the desirable River Forest community, this thoughtfully designed home blends practical living with classic charm ready for you to enjoy.
