Located on a premium corner lot at the end of Moonraker Drive, this waterfront home provides a truly peaceful retreat, immediately welcoming you with a cool breeze off the water. The exterior shines with recent major upgrades, including a new roof (2023), new siding (2023), and a new gutter system (2024). Inside, the open living area features soaring ceilings, a wood-burning fireplace, and large windows framing the water view, while the efficient galley kitchen opens to both a formal dining room and a cheerful breakfast nook. The private Primary Ensuite offers a sanctuary with a soaking tub, walk-in shower, and dual vanity, complemented by two additional spacious bedrooms that share an updated hall bathroom, and year-round outdoor relaxation is provided by the large, screened-in patio.
