Probably one of the most gorgeous garden homes in The Greens. You must see the home to understand. From the first step onto the sidewalk you can tell this home is special. The landscaping is extraordinary and has won yard of the month before. The gas lamp adds a special touch to the front of the home. The wrought iron fence opening onto the courtyard is unique and the courtyard is so serene and peaceful with its grey Mardi Gras tile and rustic gas lanterns. Open the front door and enter a foyer with brick paver floors. Step into the living room and it seems so opulent and rich. There are beautiful wood floors throughout all of the living areas. The bookcases soar to the 10 ft. ceilings and also hide an entertainment center. There is still plenty of room over the fireplace should you want to upgrade to a plasma TV. The kitchen is gorgeous and just compliments this open floor plan. The countertops are slab granite as is the breakfast bar. The appliances are all stainless steel and the house is plumbed for gas. In fact, the cooktop is gas and below it is an electric convection oven. There are custom made plantation shutters in the kitchen. Other kitchen upgrades include a full pantry, a pull out garbage drawer and a lazy susan in the corner cabinet. The bedrooms all have 9 foot ceilings and plantation shutters over the windows. The master bedroom is large and
