True Queen Anne classic. This charming home located in the historic district of Donaldsonville was featured in Country Roads magazine for its remarkable restoration. The home was lovingly restored to its former glory and is now on the National Register of Historic Places. Exquisite details abound including exotic wallpapers, chandeliers from Italy, restored wood flooring, and salvaged and restored wood moldings and shelving. This home could easily become a bed and breakfast. The upstairs is set up to be so, with 2 bedroom suites including sitting rooms and baths. In the backyard you'll find a peaceful retreat with an in ground pool surrounded by tropical lush landscaping. Modern kitchen with beaded board island, granite counter tops, and stainless steel refrigerator. All furniture to remain at no value, except small dining table, chairs, & artwork.
