Have you been looking for a beautiful home on water in a great neighborhood? Well, look no further! This great home is only two years old and better than new featuring beautiful wood floors and cabinetry, an open floor plan, great natural light, nice light fixtures, and a large backyard backing up to a lake! Not only does this home have great amenities, the builder added a half bath to this already excellent floorplan to make entertaining even easier. The laundry room is spacious (7.3x5.8) and the closet space ample. This home's location is also a big attraction. Situated in a great subdivision with a strong sense of community, this home is in one of the best school systems in the area! Don't miss your chance to tour this beautiful home today!
