NOT FOR EVERYBODY-ONE OF A KIND-A HAYS TOWN HOME-Located in Steele Place, this magnificent antebellum style home offers exquisite features only a discriminating buyer could appreciate. Enjoy the peaceful beauty and privacy as you enter along the 1830's brick gallery overlooking the majestic 200 year old Oak trees. The impeccable landscaping's beauty created by Michael Hopping, a landscape designer for Mr. Town, will not be lost on you. An irrigation system has been installed to keep the gardens lush and green throughout the year. Stepping inside the home, you will be welcomed by Brazillian cherry flagstone floors, floor to ceiling windows and the magnificent, traditional staircase. Entering the living room, your eye is drawn to the masonry fireplace, while the dining room's hand painted wallpaper evokes feelings of grandeur from a bygone era. Oak floors grace both rooms defining the understated elegance. Enjoy cooking in this beautiful kitchen with travertine floors and granite countertops. There is a full size SubZero refrigerator in the kitchen with a full size SubZero freezer in the utility room. The utility room holds 2 more full-size ovens for all your holiday dinners and parties. Enter the den and notice the light Cypress walls, a signature detail of Hays Town. Just off the den, you enter the study of the master suite.
