Very very nice corner lot home at the entrance of Hunter's Point subdivision. This house features gleaming wooden floors in the living room that expand down the wide hallway that brings you to the dining area and kitchen where you find plenty of room for cooking and entertaining. You can take the activities outside on the large covered patio that oversees the huge backyard. The adjacent lot is also available for sale if you wish for even more yard. Every room in the house is complimented with outstanding closet space. The master bath has everything you need, his and her vanities, a nice Jacuzzi tub and a separate shower. A beautiful decorative glass window on the wall by the tub allows pristine sunlight to fill the room. The guest bathroom is surprisingly spacious, simply awesome floor space in there. The walk-in utility room and workshop are accessible to the garage that has double roll up doors to park those family suvs, trucks, or cars without crowding. There's a driveway to park your boat or ATV in the back and of course an extra wide driveway in front to park when you make your first visit to your new home.
