1 Bedroom | 1 Bathroom | 960 Sqft

Beautifully renovated condo in historic Victorian home near Audubon Park highlights original architectural features, balconies on two levels and updated amenities. Elegance greets you at the door as you step into the living room and view the high ceilings, stunning, heart-of-pine wooden floors, crown molding, original, ornamental, brick fireplace w/mantel, and stairs leading to the bedroom on the upper floor. The character continues into the kitchen with exposed brick wall, custom-built cabinetry, granite counters, stainless steel appliances and slate backsplash. Upstairs bedroom includes spacious, walk-in closet, exposed brick on wall and access to one of the two balconies which provides a serene setting and a rare view of the Mississippi River! Bathrooms include travertine flooring, granite counters with the master featuring claw footed tub and stand-alone, Travertine shower. For outdoor entertainment, the balcony allows access to a large backyard, fenced for privacy and common area for the condo units. Additional features include built-in surround sound system, alarm system, spacious storage unit and off-street parking. With an outstanding location on Mardi Gras parade route and walking distance of park, Whole Foods, and Magazine Street fanfare, this 1 bedroom / 1 1/2 baths condo is an absolute must see! Situated on high, dry
