Early Nineteenth century creole cottage hailed by "Cottage Living" magazine as a true Louisiana gem. Hand plastered interior walls and ceilings. Antique glass french doors and transoms. Double sided masonry fireplace with limestone hearth. It also has double hung working windows and tongue and groove siding. Commercial stainless steel three bay sink. Handmade lead coated copper exterior lanterns. The home has galvanized 5-V roofing. Stack type washer and dryer will remain with sale. Hardwired alarm system and fenced rear yard with a garsoniere and outside private shower. Home also features handmade board and batten exterior shutters and interior doors. Please note that the den measurements are for the rear sleeping porch that can be used as a second sleeping area. Agents, this is a wonderful treasure and adventure to show all your downtown clients.
