Until you step foot into this house, you cannot truly understand how beautiful it is. Words honestly cannot fully describe all of the special touches that make this house such a shining jewel. This home was custom built in 2004. Attention was paid to details!! The floor plan is open making for an awesome place to entertain or enjoy quiet time. There is no carpet in the entire house. The bedrooms have wood floors, the baths have ceramic tile and the rest of the floors are scored concrete. The bedrooms are split with a master wing to one side of the den and the other 2 bedrooms to the other side. A fireplace graces the den. The kitchen features slab granite countertops with a raised bar and plenty of cypress cabinets. The appliances are black and blend beautifully with the granite. Above the raised bar are pendant lights making for an extra modern look. There are many ceiling fans, lots of windows, a gorgeous leaded glass front door and special touches everywhere. The master bathroom has a cathedral ceiling with beaded board. The jacuzzi tub is oversized and the shower is double-sized. The shower has cultured marble surround and tiled floors. There are separate vanities with unique bowls and fixtures. The master bedroom is large and features an octagon-shaped tray ceiling. There are french doors leading to the covered rear porch and patio. The storage in
