Enjoy quiet country living just a few minutes from shopping, restaurants, and entertainment. This property started as a bath addition and ended as a full reconfigure/renovation. This property is perfect for multi-generational households or large families. This home has 4 bedrooms with en-suite baths. Each bedroom has its own access to the outdoors. The Primary Bedroom Suite features a wet bar/coffee station and a skylight in the bath. The all-new kitchen features a huge island with tons of storage, brand new appliances (including two dishwashers), and a wood-burning fireplace with gas jet. The pantry/laundry room is right off the kitchen. The attached mother-in-law suite (which could also be used as a home office) has living/dining space, kitchenette, bedroom, and bath. It also has its own washer/dryer. The large light, bright great room contains a wall of windows looking out to the back patio and yard and is the perfect place for entertaining and sports viewing. Out back is a large storage room off the carport and a larger workshop for storing lawn and gardening equipment. There is plenty of parking with room for 4+ in the front drive, a two-car carport and room for four more in the rear driveway. The home comes equipped with a security system, including cameras. All these amenities sit on a one acre corner lot across from White Oak Estate
