Dreamy back yard living, on WATER, right in the middle of town... You heard me right! If relaxation is your goal, then this home could fit you perfectly. Home has an on demand generator, a fresh post Ida roof, powdered coated shutters on all windows, and that is only the beginning of the comfortable upgrades that could be a step into your new space. One of my favorite thing about this home is the brick accents which include a solid brick front porch and windows that reach from the floor to the ceiling in front facing bedrooms. Inside, you will find a spacious utility room, solid wood custom cabinets in the kitchen, with appliances that have been updated in the past few years.
