Exquisite Estate on 24 Acres with Custom Finishes Throughout Nestled on 24 private acres, with home sitting on approximately 6 acres beautifully maintained, this one-of-a-kind Estate offers exceptional craftsmanship and timeless elegance. The home features three Isokern fireplaces gas-burning with optional wood-burning capability including a showstopping living room mantle custom designed, hand-carved, and imported by Sebella Carved Stone of Dallas. Antique lighting sourced from Inessa Stewart's Antiques & Interiors in Baton Rouge and The French Antique Shop on Royal Street adds historic charm throughout the home. All interior doors are architectural antiques from The Bank Architectural, paired with Jeld-Wen wood-clad windows that flood the space with natural light. A custom-built staircase by Supreme Ornamental Ironwork leads to the upper level, where wide plank antique longleaf pine floors and travertine tile speak to the home's enduring quality. The gourmet kitchen and butler's pantry are outfitted with Wolf and SubZero appliances, Cristallo Quartzite and granite countertops, and antique cypress wood ceilings and beams that extend through the kitchen, back foyer, keeping room, and outdoor living area. Additional features include electric roll-down shutters for front and rear entry points, Bevelo gas lanterns throughout, copper
