If you're looking for a turnkey hunting retreat with comfort, privacy, and proven setup this is it. This 55.49-acre Adams County gem offers outstanding whitetail deer and exceptional turkey hunting and is fully equipped for serious outdoorsmen. The property features two separate camps, each with its own space and a one-of-a-kind front porch view that's hard to beat perfect for relaxing after a day in the woods. Multiple Redneck hunting blinds overlook established food plots, complete with feeders already in place, making this property ready to hunt from day one. The layout is ideal for partners or two families, allowing everyone to enjoy their own space without sacrificing convenience. Additional improvements include an extra camper for guests and multiple Conex containers for secure equipment and storage. Whether you're chasing trophy whitetails, enjoying spring turkey season, hosting family weekends, or investing in a premium recreational tract, this property checks all the boxes. Turnkey. Private. Built to hunt. Opportunities like this don't come around often.
