This stunning custom-built home blends thoughtful design, modern finishes, and Southern entertaining at its finest. Featuring 3BR/3BA, every inch of this home has been carefully curated with elevated details and functional luxury. From the moment you arrive, the stone-accented facade creates beautiful curb appeal. Inside, warm honey-toned flooring flows throughout the main living spaces, perfectly complementing the electric fireplace with its striking stone surround. The kitchen is a true showpiece, highlighted by exposed beams, a gas cooktop, pot filler, and loads of cabinets. Designed for both daily living and entertaining, it opens seamlessly into the living and dining areas. All bathrooms are fully custom with designer finishes and stunning color palettes. Most closet features built-in storage systems, and the spacious primary suite offers custom cabinetry and drawers within the primary closet combining elegance with organization. Upstairs, you'll find a light-filled open living area with abundant windows, an oversized office with closet, and an additional custom bathroom perfect for guests or a private retreat. With almost 22 feet in length, the garage easily fits a full-size truck. Exterior soffit lighting adds great curb appeal, and the covered patio features a stained wood ceiling for added character. Gutters are installed, and culverts along the road frontage
