Discover the perfect opportunity to own 5.20 beautiful acres in Ethel, offering the ideal blend of privacy, space, and country charm. Whether you're dreaming of building your custom home, placing a manufactured home, or creating a peaceful weekend retreat, this property provides plenty of room to bring your vision to life. With open space and a quiet rural setting, the acreage offers flexibility for a homesite, garden, workshop, recreational use, or even a small hobby farm. Enjoy the freedom of country living while still being within convenient driving distance to surrounding communities. An added bonus the property next door is also available for purchase, creating a rare opportunity for multi-generational living, extended family compounds, or additional investment potential. Buy one or both and design a layout that allows family to live close while maintaining privacy and independence. If you've been searching for acreage with flexibility, potential, and room to grow, this Ethel property is ready for your plans!
