Experience a rare harmony of nature and incredible design in this stunning Lindal Cedar Home. Nestled in the heart of 8.40 acres of old-growth pine and hardwoods, this 5-bedroom, 3-bath estate offers a peaceful setting just two miles from the state's top-ranked school district. Built with legendary Lindal craftsmanship, the home features 1.5-inch thick, double-grooved cedar planks a testament to the home's incredible structural integrity and timeless aesthetic. Step inside to soaring vaulted ceilings and beautiful open spaces that "bring the outdoors in" through signature Lindal windows. The layout is designed for modern living, featuring Generous Bedrooms, giving you ample space for family and guests, and Flexible Rooms that are suited for a home office, playroom, or exercise area. There is custom storage with several rooms featuring thoughtful built-in shelving and a brand-new Pecky Cypress entertainment center in the living room. The incredible Cherry Bark Red Oak floors were harvested directly from the property's own timber. These 6-inch, quarter-sawn planks display breathtaking "tiger-stripping" and grain patterns that cannot be replicated. The Primary Retreat Features a beautiful new soaking tub, a rain shower, and gorgeous custom tile surround. The Guest Bath downstairs was also redone with a new custom shower. The screened-in back
