Thoughtfully designed and beautifully executed, this custom-built home is a rare offering where craftsmanship, comfort, and outdoor living come together seamlessly. Set on an oversized corner lot with mature landscaping and fully enclosed by wrought-iron fencing, the property offers both privacy and presence. Inside, natural light highlights coffered ceilings, crown molding, custom built-ins, and refined architectural details throughout. The open living spaces flow effortlessly into a designer kitchen featuring striking custom granite, a generous island, and built-in appliances, perfect for both entertaining and everyday living. A gas fireplace anchors the living room, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. The primary suite is a private retreat with a spa-like en suite, oversized walk-in shower, soaking tub, and expansive closet. Two Additional bedrooms, a flexible office space, and thoughtfully designed support spaces complete the interior. Outdoors, the home truly shines. A screened-in porch with wood ceiling opens to a fully equipped outdoor kitchen featuring brick accents, granite countertops, built-in grill, Big Green Egg, and natural gas connections, ideal for gatherings year-round. Pergola, raised garden beds, and curated landscaping create a serene, garden-inspired setting. Enhanced by a whole-house generator, tankless water heater,
