This fully updated home offers a clean, modern feel with updated flooring throughout, stylish light fixtures, and recessed lighting. The open layout flows into a bright kitchen featuring quartz countertops, updated cabinetry, stainless appliances, and a functional island that opens to the main living area. The primary suite includes a beautifully remodeled bathroom with a double vanity, separate water closet, and a large walk-in closet. Major improvements include a post-Irma roof and all new windows. Outside, enjoy a covered patio with a wood ceiling and fans, a fully built outdoor kitchen, a fenced backyard, and a driveway with backyard access ideal for a boat or RV. The property also offers excellent drainage with all drains tied into the main system, along with a workshop and an additional storage shed. Located in Flood Zone X with no flood insurance required, this home is situated in Westgate within a great school district and close to shopping, dining, community parks, and a great neighborhood feel.
