Tickfaw River waterfront living with your own boat lifts, dock & deck overlooking the water spend your days jet skiing, fishing, tubing, or simply relaxing while the river flows by. Imagine waking up to peaceful river views, sipping coffee on the porch. This beautiful 3-bedroom, 2-bath riverfront home with an office/flex room offers the kind of lifestyle people dream about. Inside, the home feels warm, welcoming, and thoughtfully designed. The living room features a real wood-burning fireplace and a wall of windows across the back of the home, perfectly framing the stunning river views and filling the space with natural light. The kitchen blends style & function with custom cabinets extending to the ceiling, updated countertops, newer appliances, and timeless finishes. Throughout the home you'll notice quality details like crown molding in every room, solid wood doors, custom plantation shutters & tile flooring throughout no carpet anywhere. The layout also includes a dedicated office that could easily serve as a nursery, guest room, or hobby space, giving you flexibility for how you live. Outdoor living is where this property truly shines. The large screened back porch is perfect for relaxing in the evenings, while the elevated deck built over the boathouse & boat lifts offers incredible views of the river & a front-row seat to life on the water.
