Inside, you'll find fresh interior paint and new flooring throughout much of the home, creating a clean and refreshed feel. All appliances will remain with the property, including the refrigerator, washer, and dryer a valuable bonus for the next owner. The primary suite features a spacious walk-in closet, while the large kitchen stands out with an abundance of cabinetry, providing excellent storage and prep space for everyday living. Durable brick construction offers lasting appeal, and the generous back patio is ideal for outdoor entertaining, relaxing, or future customization. With a solid layout, recent improvements, and the opportunity to personalize a few remaining details, this home presents an excellent option for buyers seeking value, space, and potential.
