A well-maintained home in Sherwood Oaks with the kind of thoughtful details that make everyday living easier. The kitchen is well-appointed with granite countertops, a gas stove and range, stainless steel appliances, and plenty of cabinetry. The dining area sits just off the kitchen with a large picture window overlooking the backyard fountain a nice spot to start or end the day. The living room features a skylight and a painted brick hearth with a gas log fireplace. A separate den with a wet bar gives you added flexibility for entertaining or casual family time. The primary suite includes a walk-in closet and an en-suite bath with a jacuzzi tub, separate shower, double vanities with a makeup station, and a skylight. A direct connection to the laundry room with counter space, a sink, and storage is a practical bonus you'll appreciate daily. The secondary bedrooms include custom-built bookcases, desks, and built-in drawers, making them well-suited for work or study. Out back, a covered patio with bistro lights and a nearby fountain creates a relaxed space for grilling and outdoor dining. The fully fenced yard includes a storage shed and plenty of parking.
