You open the door at Kline, and the space just makes sense. The living room is oversized and truly the heart of the home, big enough for everyday life without feeling crowded. The updated kitchen offers abundant cabinet space, a walk-in pantry, and a layout that flows directly into the formal dining room large enough to host comfortably. Step outside where there is room for outdoor dining, entertaining, and unwinding under the covered patio while still having plenty of yard space. Located in the heart of Denham Springs, this home offers the space you need in a location that keeps you close to it all. Schedule your tour to see for yourself!
