$90,000

Metal building with prime location on Airline Hwy in Sorrento. The metal building is 30'x50' with 900 square feet that is enclosed. The zoning for the property is MU2 which will allow multiple of different business opportunities to be run from this property. There is a driveway to access the property from St. Amant Street currently but town of Sorrento blocked it off b/c they don't want people driving on it, but future buyer could add culverts to access property from Airline Hwy.
