Looking for a 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom home in the highly desirable Jefferson Terrace subdivision in Baton Rouge that actually has space to spread out and entertain? This one might be exactly what you've been searching for. When you walk in, you're greeted by a large open living room that flows right into the kitchen and main living area, creating an easy, comfortable layout that just makes sense. The kitchen features solid surface countertops, tons of cabinet and drawer storage, a wrap-around island, breakfast bar seating, and plenty of prep space perfect whether you're cooking dinner, hosting friends, or just hanging out. Off to the left is a formal dining room with large windows and great natural light, making it a great space for dinner parties, holidays, or even a home office if that's more your vibe. Beyond the main living room is an additional enclosed living area that works perfectly as a bonus room, second family room, or game room, complete with a built-in bar area that makes it ideal for entertaining. There's also a laundry room and extra walk-in closet off this space, giving you even more storage options. The primary suite includes a private bathroom and two closets, offering both comfort and convenience, while the additional bedrooms provide flexibility for guests, family, or work-from-home space. Outside, the rear-facing two-car carport keeps the
