3 Bedrooms | 2 Bathrooms | 1,810 Sqft

Welcome Home! This desirable open split floor plan awaits its new owner. There are 3 bedrooms and 2 and a half baths, ideal for any family wanting to be in the sought after Live Oak School System in Live Oak Landing. When you step into the family room you will see wood floors and a wall of windows accented with custom millwork, along with a gas log fireplace. The fireplace is set off with a decorative mantel and built in bookcase/entertainment center. The family room has 12 foot ceiling height with beautiful double crown molding. The chef in the family will love the kitchen as it features a curved breakfast bar great for entertaining, along with a corner sink for looking outside, and a walk-in pantry. Steps away there is a great office space where you will also find a half bath. The primary bedroom is spacious for large furniture with en suite bath with his/her vanities and closets. The additional bedrooms are also good size. The outside of the home has lots of entertainment space with an oversized patio for all your entertainment needs, and a privacy fence that would allow you to sit out and enjoy nature and watch the children play. The home has excellent curb appeal and features low maintenance landscaping for the gardener as well as comfortable front porch to drink your morning coffee. Easy walking access to the playground for the kids to enjoy
